

HELEN MORRAN-WOLF

EDUCATIONAL SCHOLARSHIP

About the SCHOLARSHIP

The Helen Morran-Wolf Educational Scholarship at Foothill Family provides financial support to deserving Foothill Family clients, client family members, or those receiving support from the agency to pursue first-time higher education (Bachelors) or vocational training. The scholarship will award up to $5,000 to ten (10) students each academic year and may be renewed for a second year should the recipient identify continued financial need, remains in excellent academic standing at the institution of their enrollment, and is agreed upon by the Foothill Family Scholarship Committee. In 2026, eligibility has expanded to include members of the San Gabriel Valley community who are pursuing first-time academic or vocational goals as well.

Award CRITERIA

This scholarship is funded by the Morran-Wolf/Wolf Family through a generous legacy gift made in 2024 in support of individuals who believe that education is a crucial step toward a brighter future.

- ✓ Recipients must be accepted to or enrolled in an accredited institution or vocational training program in order to be eligible for the award.
- ✓ Applicants for the scholarship must substantiate financial need or personal hardship and demonstrate academic or professional promise and perseverance.
- ✓ Applicants must maintain a minimum B- average or 2.8 GPA.
- ✓ Funds may be used to underwrite the cost of tuition, room and board (on campus), books and supplies, transportation, and other school-based services to support the well-being and education of the student. The funds must be paid directly to the institution.
